Helena Fernandez & Claudio Villagra

Helena Fernandez graduated from the Royal Academy of Dance in London in 2000 and transitioned to international tango dancing and choreography after a decade of dedicated study. Helena has taught and performed worldwide, including Europe, Asia, and America. She also holds a degree in Physiotherapy, specializing in neurological patients, enhancing her tango technique classes.

Helena has been featured in numerous TV shows and has performed in prestigious theaters globally. Additionally, she judged several dance competitions in Brazil and performed with the "Tango Seducción" dance company.

Claudio Villagra began learning tango at an early age, mentored by his grandfather Hector Contreras and later by renowned maestros like Juan Aurelio and Juan Carlos Copes. After performing in various Buenos Aires tango shows such as La Ventana, Michelangelo, and El Querandi, he embarked on an international career, gracing prestigious venues like Broadway's Walter Kerr and Marquis theaters, Olympia in Paris, and Colon Theatre.

Claudio's talent led him to perform with major companies such as Tanguera, Tango Seduccion, Tango Argentino, and Forever Tango. He later created his own show, "Latin Tango," serving as director and choreographer. His expertise has made him a sought-after teacher and judge at international tango championships and festivals. Today, he partners with Helena Fernandez, together known for their artistic versatility across various tango styles.

We will have the pleasure to have them exclusively for us before the beginning of the festival, teaching 1 hour reduced group daily lessons from 8th Sept until 11th Sept.

Welcome to Las Vegas

Guided walking tour

Las Vegas is one of the most electric, energized cities in the world but there's also so much more to Sin City than meets the eye.

We want to experience a destination on a more intimate, local, level and get to know a location 'from the inside'.

During the 2 hour tour, learn how things began, what makes the city tick, and where the 'must go, must see' places are. A professional guide will make sure you'll have a wonderful time learning about and experiencing a Las Vegas you didn't know existed.

Seafood menu

King's Fish House

King's Fish House features seasonal catches, live shellfish, daily menus and a familiar, welcoming environment that brings out the best in flavors.

We'll enjoy dinner together in an American fish house that started in Southern California which has become the community's first choice for seafood – from the Southland and beyond.

Kayaking down Black Canyon

Gunnison National Park

Located roughly an hour from the Las Vegas Strip in the Lake Mead National Recreation Area, the adventure begins when you arrive at Willow Beach, Arizona. This tour is perfect for beginners and advanced paddlers alike! We'll paddle through towering volcanic canyon walls that rise over 900 feet and explore the giant volcanic boulders at the entrance of Black Canyon. Many paddlers enjoy descending into the crystal-clear, emerald waters of the Colorado River. Take a break from kayaking and hike up a hill to a historical site with breathtaking views of the entire canyon.

After all your efforts, we'll enjoy a catered lunch on a remote beach while watching the wildlife unfold along the Nevada and Arizona shorelines.

Wine tasting

Pine Hollow Winery

Experience a boutique winery that produces small-batch, unique wines on site. Located on the westside, just minutes from the Las Vegas Strip and Summerlin, their wine tasting offers a delightful departure from the ordinary. Indulge in a wine tasting, with crackers, and decadent dark chocolate.

Let's go taste wines from this region – it'll be a fun activity to discover a winery that began a little over a decade ago in Pennsylvania before transitioning to Las Vegas. The owners have blended their East Coast heritage with the vibrant energy of Las Vegas, creating a premier winery in the valley.

Farewell dinner

Lamaii

Lamaii is a modern Thai restaurant where every dish is crafted to pair perfectly with their specialty cocktails and wine selection.

The restaurant's goal is to create a memorable dining experience in a warm and inviting atmosphere. It's the perfect place to say farewell after spending the past days together discovering Las Vegas.

Tipping in Las Vegas

Tipping in the USA is customary and often expected in many service industries.

It's a significant part of income for many service workers in the USA, and while it's technically optional, it's considered good manners and a way to show appreciation for good service.

Here's a general guide to tipping in various situations:

Restaurants: 15-20% of the bill; Bars: $1-2 per drink; Hotels: $1-2 per bag for bellhops, $1-5 per night for housekeeping, $5-10 for concierge services, and $2-5 for valet; Taxis/Ride-sharing: 15-20% of the fare; Hairdressers and Spa Services: 15-20% of the service cost; Food Delivery: 10-20% of the bill, or $2-5 for small orders.
